How Do We Show Accountability?

- Federal Website - <http://www.recovery.gov/>
- Federal agencies provide weekly status reports of investments and their major completed and planned actions
- States and territories have their own recovery Web pages that help explain how they spend funds allocated by the Recovery Act

Where Should We Go?

- The $1B Prevention and Wellness Fund is viewed by many as a down payment on health reform
- Continued investment is necessary to stop job losses and budget cuts in state and territorial health agencies and support their mission to improve the public's health
